Education Help Report - 2017

I am Reena, pursuing 2nd year Nursing Diploma course in Royal College. My mother Regina Mary is working as a housemaid and my father Jeyaseelan is working as a security guard. My younger brother named Jabeson, is studying in 9th standard in CBM School.

I am studying well. My ambition is to become a nurse. My father is having heart problem, so he can not do hard work to earn money. sometimes he becomes sick and cannot go to work. During that time, only with my mother's income we have to meet all our daily needs. In my family most of them are sick people, so from my childhood I decided to become an nurse and serve the poor people help in my area.

Everyday I am praying for you & for your family. Please remember us in your prayers.

I thank you so much for your support towards my education.

Education Help Report - 2017

I am Joyce, working as a saleswomen in a department store. I have two beautiful daughters. This year my elder daughter has completed 12th standard and my younger daughter is studying 11th standard in RKV Matriculation School.

Before 12 years my husband abandoned me and my children. Till today I am the only person taking care of them and my monthly salary is Rs. 6000.

My elder daughter has secured 1056 marks out of 1200 in her 12th standard government examination. Now she is going to join college for her higher studies. So your help will be very useful for her studies. I was worried about her education fees but by the grace of God you have helped my daughter for her higher studies. Your support is a great blessing to us in this needful time. Thank you.

I am Sam Peter, studying in 2nd year B.com in Karunya University. My father and my mother are running a small tailor shop. My parents business is a seasonal business, sometime it will be very dull.

I am studying well. I like to become an chartered accountant. It is a very tuff subject but I am working hard to achieve my ambition.

My hobbies are playing football and listening to music. Now a days I am going to guitar class and learning to play guitar. In my free time I am working as a volunteer in our church.

Your help is very useful for my studies. Your help is reducing my parents burden and boosts me up to achieve my ambition.

I am Greeta working as a Senior Accountant in IPA office. My husband is working in a lathe workshop and his income is low because of economic crises in our country. God has blessed us with two sons named Gabriel & Daniel.

My elder son Gabriel finished his final year B. Tech Mechanical Engineering in the month of June 2017 and my younger son Daniel is studying in 10th standard in Bharathi Matriculation Higher Secondary School. He is studying well. This year he is going to write government examination, so he is going for tuition and thus preparing himself well for the examination. His ambition is to become an Army soldier.

I thank you so much for the help that you have granted for my son. Please remember my family in your prayers, especially Daniel for his government examination to score more marks. Thank you.
